

Underscores a Need for Ban of Atom Tests

By BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy says the possibility of 10 or 15 nuclear powers by the need for an enforceable treaty need for an enforceable treaty banning all atomic tests.

The President told his news conference Wednesday he and all the world would welcome a cessation of testing by next New Year's Day. But, he made clear, Soviet objection to international inspection dims the hopes of an agreement.

"I must point out again that in order to end testing, we must have workable international agreements," Kennedy said. "Gentlemen's agreements and moratoria do not provide the types of guarantees that are necessary."

Kennedy warned that when one nuclear weapons goes off, "it may mean they all go off."

"Those who oppose an agreement," he said solemnly, "should consider what our security will look like at the end of the decade if we do not have the agreement."

One of the president's opening statements was on nuclear testing and he was returned to the subject again and again in a meeting with newsmen that produced these other items:

—Associate Justice Felix Frankfurter, 79 and ill, is retiring after 23 years on the Supreme Court and Kennedy has selected Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg to fill the vacancy.

—The President considers the U.S. foreign aid program "the most valuable weapon immediately that we have on the front lines against the Communist advance," and he finds "it very ironic that those who make the strongest speeches against Communist movements are the ones who want to cut this program the hardest."

—The United States has no evidence that Russian troops have moved into Cuba and Kennedy thinks an invasion of the Communist-aligned Caribbean country would be a mistake that could lead "to very serious consequences for many people."

—Kennedy said he is not familiar with any Russian proposal for a meeting in Berlin of the four occupying powers to discuss the divided city's future, but he said there will be a foreign ministers meeting before the U.N. General Assembly convenes next month.

In reply to questions on other topics, Kennedy said:

Government agencies are investigating possible dangerous side-effects from the widespread use of DDT and other pesticides; farmers withholding meats and grains from the market are trying to get higher prices, not deprive consumers of their products.

Pornographic literature is "a matter of concern for parents," but about all officials can do is enforce the laws as interpreted by the courts; the United States strongly supports Cambodia's independence and neutrality; "a very critical situation" would arise if Katanga is not integrated in the Congo.

Signs Philippine War Damage Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy signed the $73-million Philippine war damage bill today and expressed gratification that most of the money will be reinvested in the Philippine economy.

The White House signing ceremony was witnessed by Secretary of State Dean Rusk; a large group of congressional leaders; the Philippine charge d'affaires, Jose Imperial, and visiting Philippine Sen. Rogelio de la Rosa.

The new allotment, benefiting some 86,000 claimants, will permit completion of payments to those awarded compensation for losses in World War II. A 1946 appropriation of $400 million proved insufficient.

Not Good Enough for State Dept., U A World Champion Choir Had to Pay Own Way

WASHINGTON (AP)—The story of how the University of Arkansas' mixed chorus went to Europe and won first place in an international competition in Italy came out today.

The chorus financed its trip on a "do-it-yourself" basis after being turned down by a State Department screening agency as "not good enough" to warrant federal assistance.

To make the victory sweeter, the Schola Cantorum was publicly congratulated by President Kennedy in his news conference Wednesday and next Tuesday will sing for him in the White House Rose Garden—just a loud holler, so to speak, from the State Department.

The "not good enough" finding was made by the American National Theater and Academy (ANTA), which acts as adviser to the State Department on providing aid to such groups going abroad.

Telling the story today, Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., said the chorus began planning the trip early this year and contacted him to learn if State Department aid, through the Bureau of Cultural and Educational Affairs, might be forthcoming. A tape was submitted to ANTA which said it was sorry but the chorus failed to meet necessary standards.

After that the chorus embarked on a statewide fund-raising drive, giving concerts and seeking alumni assistance.

The chorus raised the money, made the trip and won the prize, snatching it from 26 other groups.

Now the 40-voice chorus is directed by Richard Brothers.

Plane Crash Lands But Pilot Unhurt

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — An Air National Guard jet plane crash-landed at Fort Smith Municipal Airport Wednesday but its pilot, 1st Lt. Bill Strang of Fort Smith, was not hurt.

Strang was alone in the RF84F from the 144th Air National Guard unit at Fort Smith.

The Federal Aviation Agency said the plane's landing gear failed to lower and the jet skidded 4,800 feet before stopping. It was heavily damaged.

Wirtz Named Secretary of Labor

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today named Undersecretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz to succeed Supreme Court Justice-designate Arthur J. Goldberg as secretary of labor.

Kennedy personally announced his selection at a news conference.

The President said Wirtz, 50, has served with distinction as undersecretary since the beginning of his administration.

He added that he is confident Wirtz will carry on what he called the very fine tradition set by Goldberg in the field of labor-management relations.

Wirtz has had long experience in the labor-management field. In 1946, he was chairman of the Wage Stabilization Board.

He also has taught law at Northwestern University and at the University of Iowa.

Kennedy said he made the announcement "with great pleasure."

He described Wirtz as an able lawyer with long experience in labor-management relations.

Flow Easement Average Is $10

NASHVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Army Engineers intend to increase land purchases of flowage easements to speed up the Millwood Dam project, Mrs. Catherine Norsworthy, Howard County circuit clerk, said Wednesday. She said the average price for flowage easement is $10 an acre except where the government buys buildings that come within the 260 foot elevation above mean sea level. Total storage capacity of the reservoir will be 1,858,000 feet. It will have a surface area of 95,200 acres of flood stage.

Quake Hits Parts of Three States

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP) — A sharp earthquake shook parts of three states early today.

It apparently centered in the Cache Valley 80 miles north of here where considerable damage was reported. It was felt as far away as Pocatello, Idaho, and Evanston in southwest Wyoming.

No injuries were reported. At Lewiston, Utah, a drugstore collapsed onto a cafe, demolishing both buildings.

One wall of the Crystal Furniture Co. building in Logan, a city of 18,000, fell onto a used car lot.

The Utah Highway Patrol reported a slide across U.S. 89 in Logan Canyon.

A building of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was damaged.

The first tremor was felt at 6:36 a.m. and lasted about 30 seconds. It was followed by two smaller shocks.

The University of California at Berkeley recorded the quake and said it was a fairly heavy one.

Cache Valley is but a few miles east of the Great Salt Lake.

Local Junior Auxiliary Makes Plans

Stephen F. Crouch of Lexa, Arkansas has received the first annual $2,000 scholarship given by the National Association of Junior Auxiliaries. Since receiving his bachelor's degree from Hendrix College, Mr. Crouch has been working at the Children's Colony in Conway. The Hope chapter contributed $100 toward this scholarship which will enable Mr. Crouch to obtain his master's degree in special education work from Arkansas State Teacher's College.

Vice-president, Mrs. E. P. Young, Jr. presided at the local chapter's August meeting in the absence of Mrs. James Branch, president. Mrs. Young announced the Region V meeting will be in Hot Springs, October 30th at the Arlington Hotel. Members from this chapter will attend and participate as requested by the regional director.

Mrs. William Duckett, reporting for the Christmas Bazaar committee, told of the plans to set up a workshop in the rear of the Thrift Shop building at an early date.

4.1 Million Chicks Started

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Crop Reporting Service said today Arkansas producers started 4,194,000 broiler chicks during the week ended Aug. 28, four per cent below the previous week.

Of the total placements in the state, 3,626,000 chicks were hatched in Arkansas and 568,000 came from other states.

There were 105,000 broiler chicks shipped out of the state during the week. The estimated total of 5,103,000 eggs set for broiler-type chicks in Arkansas during the week was one per cent above the previous week.

Murphy Denies Estes' Arrest Caused Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Undersecretary of Agriculture Charles S. Murphy denied today that it was the arrest of Billie Sol Estes that triggered the Agriculture Department's crackdown on Estes' farm aid deals.

In fact, Murphy said, the arrest may have delayed it a few days.

He gave the testimony under questioning by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., whose Senate Investigations subcommittee is seeking to learn whether political influence helped Estes to make millions under farm aid programs.

The subcommittee has heard testimony that it was not until after Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman learned of the Estes case about March 23 and personally took over the decision making that Estes' allegedly illegal cotton acreage allotments were finally canceled. Civil penalty fines totaling $554,000 subsequently were levied against Estes.

Saying the department's own investigators viewed the cotton deals as outside the law, McClellan asked Murphy: "In the face of everything that was known to the department, was there not sufficient evidence to enable a decision long before this?"

McClellan interrupted a long reply by Murphy to demand whether the undersecretary believed the allotments "would have been canceled if Estes had not been arrested."

"Yes, I do," Murphy said and added that "the arrest may have delayed it a few days."

Murphy said he had decided in his own mind that "we had gone about as far as we could go" in giving Estes a chance to furnish proof that his deals were legal.

Murphy said he never did believe that Estes could produce such proof, but that the government wound up with an outright case against Estes because the Pecos, Tex., promoter had these opportunities.

Murphy acknowledged that he sat in on a meeting on March 28—the day before Estes' arrest—which considered whether to permit operators other than Estes to bring third parties into similarly disputed cotton allotment deals, in an effort to legalize the allotment juggling involved.

McClellan has contended that the "third party" arrangement might have been proposed to provide a precedent to "hail out" Estes.

Estes' arrest was on a fraud charge not related to his dealings with the Agriculture Department. He was accused of giving private financing companies fraudulent mortgages on nonexistent fertilizer tanks.

This was Murphy's second day in the Senate subcommittee's witness chair. Before the day's hearing opened, Murphy told newsmen he believed he still had Freeman's "vote of confidence" as to his actions in the case.

Secy. Goldberg Named to U. S. High Court

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ailing Felix Frankfurter, a legal legend in his own lifetime, has handed down a final, sorrowful decision as a Supreme Court justice: to retire rather than attempt to carry on at a faltering pace.

President Kennedy immediately chose Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg to succeed the wiry, wispish little man with a big mind and a flair for piercing questions who had served on the nation's highest court for 23 years.

And the White House said a successor to Goldberg would be named promptly, too.

Goldberg's top assistant, Undersecretary W. Willard Wirtz, reportedly was on the list of persons receiving consideration. Assistant Secretary Esther Peterson, who said she is not a candidate for the Cabinet vacancy, got a fast, strong endorsement from home state Sen. Frank Moss, D-Utah, as "the most capable person available at this point."

Frankfurter's retirement and the Goldberg appointment were announced at the outset of a presidential news conference Wednesday.

Frankfurter, 79, suffered a stroke April 5. His speech was impaired. He has been away from the court ever since.

He wrote President Kennedy Tuesday of his decision, and started off by citing "28 U.S.C. Sec. 371, B. 68, Stat. 12" — the U.S. statute permitting his retirement.

"To retain my seat on the basis of a diminished work schedule," he said, "would not comport with my own philosophy or with the demands of the business of the court. I am thus left with no choice but to regard my period of active service on the court as having run its course."

In a warm letter of reply, Kennedy voiced for himself and all Americans "our respectful gratitude for the character, courage, learning and judicial dedication with which you have served your country over the last 23 years."

It was characteristic, he said, that Frankfurter had taken the judgment of his doctors and "set it sternly against your own demanding standard of judicial effectiveness."

FTA Group Attends a Workshop

The local Irma Dean chapter of the Future Teachers of America, the largest in Arkansas, sent its officers to a three day workshop at Camp Ferncliff, August 26-28.

Purpose of this meeting was to learn more of the duties of officers and to learn new and better ways of presenting programs. The Hope group took first place in stunt night and the boys exploration team won first. Hope finished second in scrapbook competition and drew third in boys canoe racing.

Officers attending were: Dora Ann King, Cherry Anderson, Jennifer Cox, Phala Brown, Diane Ellis, Sharon Kay Greene, Carol Ann Taylor, Barbara Reese, Phil McLarty, Joe Keesey and Joe Purvis. Bill Land was unable to attend.

Estes' arrest was on a fraud charge not related to his dealings with the Agriculture Department. He was accused of giving private financing companies fraudulent mortgages on nonexistent fertilizer tanks.

This was Murphy's second day in the Senate subcommittee's witness chair. Before the day's hearing opened, Murphy told newsmen he believed he still had Freeman's "vote of confidence" as to his actions in the case.

15 MOP Cars Are Derailed

HOXIE, Ark. (AP) — Fifteen cars of a southbound Missouri Pacific freight derailed three miles south of Hoxie today.

Several cars overturned, including some tank cars, but there was no fire. No one was injured.

Cause of the derailment, which started about 20 cars behind the engine of the 115 car train, was not known.

Traffic was delayed about three hours. It resumed over a parallel track.

Agri Official Says Freeman Trusts Him

WASHINGTON (AP) — Undersecretary of Agriculture Charles S. Murphy said today he believes he still holds Secretary Orville L. Freeman's "vote of confidence" as to his actions in the Billie Sol Estes case.

He made the statement to reporters before resuming testimony in a Senate investigation of possible influence peddling in the handling of Estes' big money farm aid deals.

"So far as surviving in my job is concerned," the undersecretary said in response to questions, "I have not the slightest doubt."

He said that meant he did not expect his resignation would be requested and that he did not plan to resign voluntarily.

Murphy said he based this appraisal on a talk he had Wednesday night with Freeman in which "we discussed the hearings and how they were going."

Murphy testified Wednesday that Estes, a Pecos, Tex., promoter, never received favored treatment from the Agriculture Department.

The chief stumbling block in the dispute is the union's demand that no telegraphers or station agents jobs that existed Dec. 3, 1957, be discontinued except by agreement between the union and the carrier.

The North Western says this would give the union "an absolute veto over technological improvements and over modernization and increases in efficiency."

Slanted Wells Cut Into Oil Production

DALLAS (AP)—East Texas oil wells which have been slanted to slead oil from neighboring leases have cut sharply into the crude production of legitimate operators, says an expert.

Texas House Investigating Committee members received the appraisal Wednesday at the end of three days of hearings on the scandal. The hearing was recessed until Sept. 10.

In other testimony yesterday: 1. A district court judge was found to be part owner of leases with illegally slanted wells. He testified he knew nothing about the situation and agreed to think about taking a lie detector test.

2. Witnesses again accused former state employee Nelson Decker, whose job was to help police the oil industry, of receiving thousands of dollars under suspicious circumstances.

3. Decker, fired by the Railroad Commission along with another employee accused of taking $76,000 in bribes to conceal crooked drilling, refused to testify on the ground of possible self-incrimination.

4. Texas Atty. Gen. Will Wilson said additional evidence of bribery and collusion will be available for the committee's next session.

Robert W. Lockwood, University of Texas economist, estimated August production alone would have been 12 per cent greater if illegal wells had been closed and their allowable output apportioned among legitimate wells.

U. S. Fails to Avert Strike of Large Railway

CHICAGO (AP)—Operations on the Chicago & North Western Railway, one of the nation's largest railroads, were halted today by a strike despite personal efforts by President Kennedy to avert the walkout.

Freight and passenger service along the nearly 11,000-mile line in nine Midwestern states was struck at 7 a.m. by 1,000 members of the AFL-CIO Order of Railroad Telegraphers.

It was the fourth strike called by the union since the dispute with the North Western started more than four years ago but the first to go into effect.

At the strike deadline, a spokesman for the railroad said all trains had halted. Pickets appeared at the North Western station, the carrier's general headquarters.

Union officials had said some 15,000 other employees of the line would not cross the telegraphers' picket lines.

The strike started officially five hours after union and railroad officials met in lengthy, last-minute negotiations in an attempt to settle the long dispute.

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg was sent to the negotiations by President Kennedy in an attempt to reach an agreement. The government had exhausted all legal means of preventing the strike.

The chief stumbling block in the dispute is the union's demand that no telegraphers or station agents jobs that existed Dec. 3, 1957, be discontinued except by agreement between the union and the carrier. The North Western says this would give the union "an absolute veto over technological improvements and over modernization and increases in efficiency."

20th Century Fox Almost Closed Down

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—20th Century-Fox Studio is limiting activities almost to the point of shutdown by direction of its new president, Darryl F. Zanuck, and approval of its executive committee.

A studio spokesman said 350 employees are being laid off immediately. There were reports that as many as 500 would be affected and that the slowdown would continue at least until the first of the year.

Zanuck said Wednesday in New York that studio activities are being limited to editing and completing the picture "Cleopatra," work on future television projects and preparing screenplays for production after Jan. 1.

"Cleopatra," starring Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton, is blamed for much of the studio's troubles, having cost $30 million through five years of filming. There were delays caused by Miss Taylor's marriage to Eddie Aries and overtime, the commotion over the breakup in Rome of Miss Taylor's marriage to Eddit Fisher and her romancing with Burton.

Robert W. Lockwood, University of Texas economist, estimated August production alone would have been 12 per cent greater if illegal wells had been closed and their allowable output apportioned among legitimate wells.

Big Bird Is Featured in Markets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Few main-course foods are more uniformly abundant throughout the nation this week than turkeys.

The Department of Agriculture reports the big bird is featured at Northwestern meat counters, attractively priced in the Southeast and low-priced in the Southwest. In other areas it is also abundant.

One large chain is featuring turkey in its New York outlets at 39 cents a pound for 4-to-14-pound birds, and 33 cents a pound for heavier weights.

Accompanying turkey on the special counters in the Northeast are smoked hams, fryers and broilers.

In the Southeast, ground beef is reported to be attractively priced, as are broilers and fryers.

Round, sirloin and Porterhouse steaks are featured in some Chicago markets.

Fresh pork, spareribs and bacon are slightly lower in some Western markets and some beef cuts are lower in the Los Angeles area.

In several areas red meats are slightly higher. Rib roasts and oven-ready roasts are quoted 8 cents a pound higher than last week at New York outlets of a national chain.

On the produce counter, green beans, cabbage, celery, corn, eggplant, lettuce, onions, peppers, potatoes, radishes, squash.

The most plentiful fruits are apples, grapes, pears, plums and melons.

Weir Wants to Pay Off Liens

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — James Weir of Dermott asked court permission Wednesday to sell his 1960 and 1961 rice crops free of liens in order to satisfy debts with the Agriculture Department.

U.S. Attorney Robert D. Smith said the request was agreeable to him. Smith said the sale would allow Weir to maintain his 995-acre Chicot County farm, which was sold April 17 at auction to satisfy a $16,972 federal judgment against the farmer for overplanting allotments.

Several judgments have been entered against Weir for overplanting. Weir maintains acreage allotments are unconstitutional and has had a running battle with the government over them.

White House about that time. The President was sending him to Chicago to try to head off a strike of telegraphers against the Chicago and North Western Railway, and they had been talking about the dispute.

Kennedy, an aide said, told the secretary of Frankfurter's retirement, discussed the question of a successor, offered Goldberg the position and received an immediate acceptance.

Goldberg is 54, greying, usually smiling, always bouncing around with seemingly unflagging energy. He was among those mentioned for the Supreme Court at the time Kennedy made his first appointment to the tribunal, that of Deputy Atty. Gen. Byron R. White.

Both Frankfurter and Goldberg are Jews. Both came from immigrant stock. Both battled, too, for unpopular causes they felt were right.

But Frankfurter's legal background was largely that of the Harvard professor. Goldberg's 30 years of law were largely in the labor field. He had a key role in the merger of the AFL and CIO.

In Congress, words of regret that failing health had forced Frankfurter to retire were coupled with generous appraisals of Goldberg.

Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois—Chicago is Goldberg's home town—said the Cabinet member "measures up to every standard required for a

11th Arkansas District Has Integrated

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

An eleventh Arkansas school district quietly desegregated this week and about 225 Negroes will attend classes with whites in the state this year.

The total is up about 100 from last year. The remainder of Arkansas' 110,265 Negro students will attend all-Negro schools.

Mansfield started integrated classes without advance publicity Monday with five Negroes among 350 elementary school pupils and nine Negroes in the 365-student high school.

Supt. Jack J. Eford said the district previously spent about $6,000 a year to transport its 14 Negro students 80 miles each day to attend all-Negro schools at Fort Smith.

Eford said the school board decided to desegregate after it received some requests from Negro parents. He said there had been no incidents or complaints and the situation appeared good.

Elsewhere, Little Rock will desegregate the eighth grade when classes start next week. It will have 78 Negroes in all junior and senior high grades except the ninth.

Fort Smith will extend a grade-year plan up to the sixth grade and will have more than 20 Negroes in two desegregated elementary schools.

Van Buren will move a desegregating grade-year plan down through the fourth grade. This will put about 25 Negroes in integrated schools and leave enrollment in the Negro school, which covers only grades 1-3 now, at 15 to 20.

Bentonville will have three Negroes among 1,700 students at all grade levels. Charleston 15 to 20 among 550 and Hoxie four among 560 students. These three districts have had complete integration a number of years.

Fayetteville will continue with integrated classes in grades 7-12 with about 20 Negroes at the junior high level and 15 in senior high. About 75 Negro elementary students will continue in an all-Negro school.

About 14 Negroes will be enrolled in the Little Rock Air Base School in the Pulaski County Special District. This school, attended only by children of base personnel, was desegregated two years ago at the insistence of the Air Force.

Hot Springs will continue to admit Negroes to one auto mechanics class at Hot Springs High. This practice was started in 1957.

The only pending desegregation suit in Arkansas is against the Dollarway district near Pine Bluff. Dollarway advances a grade-year plan into the third grade this year.

It will have two Negroes in the second grade and two in the third, all promoted. The district had no applications from first-graders-to-be who wanted to attend an integrated school this year.

The suit concerns the effort of George Howard, state president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, to get his 14-year-old daughter into the predominantly white school.

The school board has rejected Howard's request on grounds that his daughter lives closer to the all-Negro school. The board also has a policy of not transferring Negroes once they start attending the all-Negro school.

Withholding of Business Profits Beat

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has turned down President Kennedy's proposal for a withholding system to wipe out tax evasion on dividend and interest income.

The defeat had been conceded in advance by administration leaders struggling to put the watered-down tax revision bill through the Senate.

But the size of the vote Wednesday against withholding—66-20—was a surprise even to the little group of Democrats who tried to keep it in the bill. Only 19 Democrats and one Republican, John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, supported the President; 34 Democrats and 32 Republicans opposed the provision.

There's a chance the proposal will be salvaged in conference because the House included it in passing the measure in March. But the strongest advocates of the plan said their hope is slim.

The Treasury estimated the dividend and interest withholding plan would bring in about $900 million a year in taxes now evaded by failure to report about $5 billion of such income.

This was to be the biggest item in paying for the major feature of the bill—a $100-million credit to spur U.S. business to buy new machinery and equipment.

Without withholding, the bill is estimated to mean a substantial annual deficit to the Treasury.

Rules Girl Should Go to High School

By BOB ARING

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—A judge ruled today that Rosemary Sheppard, 15, should remain with an older sister, clearing the way for her to start high school instead of attending classes at home.

Dist. Judge Eben L. Taylor denied a writ of habeas corpus which Rosemary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Sheppard, had sought to gain custody of their daughter from the sister, Naomi McNeese. Mrs. McNeese was given care of the girl by Juvenile Court.

Rosemary's mother sat alone in the courtroom while her lawyer and an assistant county attorney argued the case. Rosemary walked past her mother without speaking.

Taylor denied defense contentions that Juvenile Court did not have authority to give custody of Rosemary to the sister and that the time until a further custody hearing, set for Sept. 26, was unreasonably long.

While today's hearing technically dealt only with custody of Rosemary, the case involved whether she would go to high school or continue to attend classes taught by her mother. Rosemary left 3rd grad 176

Marshall's Appointment Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee again today delayed action on Thurgood Marshall's nomination to be a Circuit Court judge.

Sen. Olin D. Johnston, D-S.C., told newsmen that the committee, at his request, had put off for a week any action on a motion by Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., to approve the nomination of the Negro attorney.

The committee's regular practice is to postpone action on a nomination or other matters for one week at the request of one of the members.

Johnston is chairman of a subcommittee that conducted hearings on Marshall's nomination, first submitted by President Kennedy nearly a year ago. The subcommittee was reported to have voted two to one to recommend rejection of the appointment.

Marshall is the former counsel for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. He was nominated last Sept. 23 to be a judge on the 2nd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, which covers New York, Connecticut and Vermont.

The nomination is subject to Senate confirmation.

Hamburg to Get a New Sawmill

HAMBURG, Ark. (AP) — Location of a sawmill employing about 150 persons and having an annual payroll of $500,000 at Hamburg was announced Wednesday.

Hamburg residents will be asked to approve a $1.1 million bond issue to finance construction of the plant. It will be leased to the Georgia Pacific Corp. and subsequently to Tommy A. Reynolds Jr. of El Dorado, who is to operate the mill. The Act 9 bonds would be retired through rental payments.

Reynolds said he has signed a contract with the Crossett Division of Georgia-Pacific for purchase of 22 million feet of pine sawtimber each year for 10 years.

Reynolds said he also expects to purchase timber from area landowners.

An election is expected to be called in about 40 days. Reynolds said he hopes to begin production by late 1963. He said similar plants will be built at Monticello and at Bastrop, La. later.

Arkansan Charged in Embezzlement

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Special agent Roy K. Moore of the Federal Bureau of Investigation said Wednesday George M. Rose, 38, of Benton, has been arrested for violation of the Federal Reserve Act.

Moore said Rose was charged with embezzling $2,579 from the Benton Alcoa Employees Federal Credit Union. The charge was filed in a complaint before U.S. Commissioner John E. Coates at Little Rock.

Following a hearing before Coates Wednesday Rose was released on $1,500 bond. Moore said Rose had been treasurer of the credit union since December 1959.

Readiness Alert Held in Berlin

BERLIN (AP) — A thousand men of the U.S. garrison in West Berlin staged a routine readiness alert early today.

The soldiers deployed for two hours in southern areas of the U.S. sector. An Army spokesman said none of the men was sent to the Berlin wall or to the border with East Germany.

Syble Putman and Joe Matt
Married Exchange Views

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Putman announced the marriage of their daughter, Syble Annette, to Joe Matt Herndon, son of Rufus Herndon, Jr. and the late Mrs. Herndon, on August 17 at the First Baptist Church.

The Rev. Gordon Renshaw, pastor of the United Baptist Church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with magnolia leaves and candles. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gown in a broad satin with a cat-orchid at her shoulder. Miss Riley was her only attendant. She wore pink shoes. Mrs. Herndon served his son as a man. After a short trip, the couple left home in Dallas, Texas, at the wedding and reception were

DOROTHY DIX

Girls Take Warning

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: Every girl should look before she leaps into marriage—not at her prospective husband, but possible in-laws. She should ask herself, "How well do I know the family of my future husband, especially his mother? Could I live with her if necessity decreed it?" I did none of these things and we bestride me now. For seven and half years I've learned the hard way. As a consequence, my mother-in-law drove me to a nervous breakdown. At the doctor's orders, we moved to a home of our very own. What bliss! Naturally I recovered.

Now, heaven help me, my mother-in-law is with us again, claiming she was no longer able to care for herself. The doctor says she is healthy as a teen-ager. Why she picks on us, I don't know. There are three other sons besides my husband, all married. Their wives say they don't understand her. Lucky dummies! She has been in this country longer than I have, yet only speaks a few words of English. My husband orders her around as if she were a child—which she is and—as a result, tears him. But not me. I have to listen to the same complaints, querulous questions, boring stories 24 hours of the day. When I go visiting, she must go too. Same with shopping, marketing, even the hair-dresser's—my one luxury.

My boys are tired of her already and stay away from home as much as possible. I don't blame them for home is no home.

Dear Helen: I'm a fraud. Friends think me one type of girl, when actually I'm completely opposite. My boy friends see me as a glamorous coquette who leads them on only to dish out ice; a Lorelei. They build me up to important people as the reigning beauty, the unattainable one. Instead of being overjoyed, I'm depressed, far from being the bold, heartless siren, I am a shy, shrinking violet who longs to be kissed and cuddled but doesn't know how and fears to make a fool of herself in the doing. My heart all but breaks when guys go away feeling I don't like them. Now I've met one who makes me weak in the knees every time we meet. We talked and danced at a party last evening and he tried to kiss me with the usual result. He's one I don't want to deceive. Should I reveal myself as the ingenuit I really am or go on playing the role of Miss Lorelei—Shameful!

Dear Goat: Of course there is a solution because this problem concerns the most important job of your life—making your marriage go. Once having decided upon this as your objective, the next thing is to work out ways and means. Call a family powwow. Issue an ultimatum. Say fair is fair. You've done your share. It's up to the other in-laws to take a hand. With four able-bodied sons and daughters-in-law, there is no reason why all shouldn't contribute toward maintaining a small home for your mother-in-law with a sister country woman who speaks her language and understands her background. Her sons must take the initiative. If you wives stand together you can put it over—the everlasting happiness of all concerned.

Dear Helen: Everything you say is slanted in favor of the women. The majority of suffering males who write you are desperately in need of help from a compassionate, intelligent human being, instead of the flip, off-the-cuff condemnations that seem to flow from your typewriter. Perhaps you never heard that there are two sides to every story. No knowing person would condemn a man for leaving a slob of a woman and lacing up with a girl who appreciates a real man. It's a wonder to me that you can sleep nights after dispensing your brand of pap. —J. T., Santa Clara Valley, California

Dear J. T.: Sorry! I must have stepped on your toes. What is your side of the story?

Says Russia Bad Off Economically

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rather than burying the United States, Russia is going to have a hard time keeping from being buried economically, a federal labor official said today.

Ewan Clague of Washington, commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, told the International Association of Government Labor Officials that the Communist economic bloc has failed.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has attacked the European Common Market but he now would like to join it, Clague said.

Post-war economic recovery in common market countries proves the Marshall Plan, which put them on their feet, was a success, Clague added.

In contrast to western prosperity, Clague said, Communist bloc countries have been unable even to produce enough food for their own needs.

More Money Asked

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress was asked Monday by the Army Engineers for an additional $904 million for comprehensive development of 10 river basins, including the White River Basin in Arkansas and Missouri. The engineers said funds it plans to spend on the 10 projects will exceed its authority by that amount by June 30, 1965. The Arkansas - Missouri project would cost $11 million.

Pipers Pro Team Quits the League

CLEVELAND (AP) — George Steinbrenner, president of the Cleveland Pipers in the American Basketball League, said today his club would not play this season in the ABL.

He said the club lost close to $200,000 last year.

Steinbrenner had made an unsuccessful attempt to switch the Pipers to the rival National Basketball League.

Bridge Survey

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP) — The Missouri-Tennessee Bridge Commission is seeking funds for a new survey to determine the need for a Mississippi River Bridge near Caruthersville, Gov. John M. Dalton said today.

The state highway commission has agreed to put up $12,000 and Tennessee will be asked to match that amount. The funds from the two states would then be matched by the Federal Bureau of Public Roads for the $50,000 study.

Claude Self Chairman of ASC Group

Claude Self of Rt. 4, Hope, has been re-elected to serve as chairman of the Hempstead ASC county committee for the next year starting Sept. 1.

Other members of the committee elected at the convention at the Marshall Scott of McCaskill, vice chairman; and H. B. Gilbert of Rt. 1, Washington, regular member. In addition, W. H. Schooley of Rt. 3 Hope and Roy Fry of Rt. 1, Fulton, were named as first and second alternates.

Under the former-committee system of administration of ASCS programs, the ASC county committee, with the assistance of 36 ASC community committees, is charged with the responsibility of administering all action-type farm programs in the county for which ASCS has responsibility.

The operating functions of the programs are carried out by the county office personnel who are directed by Cecil F. Guthrie, the county office manager, who is supervised by the ASC county committee.

Some of the programs administered in the county by the ASC committee are the Commodity Loan & Purchase Program, Marketing Quota and Mobile

Dodgers Take Game After 13 Innings

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ed Roebuck, the 31-year-old relief specialist, continued his spectacular comeback Wednesday night, pitching four innings of shutout relief before the Los Angeles Dodgers, finally edged Cincinnati's third-place Reds 2-1 on Johnny Roseboro's bases-loaded singled in the 13th inning.

It was the ninth victory against no defeat for Roebuck, who used sheer guts and constant toil to break down adhesions behind his right shoulder after spending almost the entire 1961 season on the disabled list and showing little promise in spring training.

Roebuck's triumph shot the Dodgers 6½ games in front of the defending champion Reds and upped their edge over second-place San Francisco to 3½ games. Milwaukee knocked off the Giants 7-3 behind Bob Hendley's seven-hitter and homers by Hank Aaron and Lou Johnson.

Bob Friend posted his 15th victory as fourth-place Pittsburgh defeated the Chicago Cubs 5-2. Jim Campbell's big ninth-inning homer gave Houston a 3-2 decision over St. Louis and Philadelphia edged the New York Mets 3-2 in 10 innings.

In the American League Cleveland swept a doubleheader from the first-place New York Yankees 3-2 and 9-5. Minnesota took over second and climbed to within two games of the top with a 5-3 decision over the Chicago White Sox. Kansas City dropped the Los Angeles Angels to third with a 6-0 victory, and Baltimore belted Washington 9-3. A Detroit-Boston doubleheader was rained out.

The Reds scored first, getting a run off 22-game winner Don Drysdale in the sixth. Reds' starter Joey Jay had a one-hit shutout going into the ninth. He retired the first two batters, but Frank Howard stroked a single and Duke Snider followed with a triple that tied it.

Jay (20-11) and Roebuck, who allowed only two hits, matched serves until the last of the 13th when Tommy Davis opened with a single. Ron Fairly bunted him to second and Lee Walls blundered a double, but Davis was forced to hold at third. Snider was intentionally walked before Roseboro tagged a long fly for the game winner.

Johnson paced the Braves' 16-hit bombardment of Giants' starter Billy O'Dell (15-12) and four successors with three singles and his second homer since he was called up from the minors July 18.

Friend (15-12) was coasting with a five-hitter when he gave up a walk and a single to start the ninth, bringing on Elroy Face to set the Cubs down on three pitches and preserve the triumph.

Campbell's game-winner was only the sixth hit off Cardinal starter Bob Gibson (15-10), and only the second since the third inning. Dick Farrell (9-17) won it with an eight-hitter.

The Mets' Jay Hook (8-15) and Phil's Cal McLish (9-4) were tied 2-2 until the 10th when a double by Wes Covington and Don Demeter's single scored the clincher for the Phillies.

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—Jed Henderson pitched a three-hitter for his third victory and Red Bank, N.J., won its third game by defeating Indianapolis, Ind., 6-2 Wednesday night in the National Non-Pro Baseball Tournament.

Red Bank advanced to the fifth round with a 3-1 record and the Indiana champions were eliminated from the double-elimination affair.

Grand Rapids, Mich., advanced undefeated to the fourth round, rapping Greensboro, N.C., 10-5 for its third straight victory.

The game was tied 3-3 when Grand Rapids rallied for five runs in the fourth inning. Pitcher Dick Klumher's three-run homer highlighted the rally.

Relief Teams Are Rushed to Greece

The tremors Tuesday rolled in an arc from northern Greece, through the Peloponnese and southern Italy and up to the Alps.

Hong Kong (AP)—Red China closed its border with Hong Kong today minutes after a bomb exploded on the Chinese side of the border station at Shumchun.

The British closed off their side of the border immediately after.

The explosion was the seventh in a series of blasts that have rocked border stations facing Hong Kong and the nearby Portuguese colony of Macao in recent weeks.

Observers believe the explosions are the work of an organized anti-Communist terrorist movement taking shape in Red China's coastal province of Kwangtung.

Bobcats Show More Hustle in Practice

By VINCE FOSTER
Hope Star Sports Writer

The Hope Bobcats seemed to show more hustle in Wednesday's practice than in the past few days. They are rounding into shape and have a lot of spirit as they prepare for their opening game with Texarkana September 7.

As always, though, injuries and illnesses are leaving a few dents in the lineup. Fullback Roy Wray, a two year letterman, has been out most of the week as has Ricky Butler, junior guard. Also end James Marcum is missing from action with a leg injury.

In a live scrimmage yesterday, Kendall Yocum was commended for his continued aggressiveness and has been keeping the linemen on guard. Coach Beasley also complimented guard Jack Caldwell and tackle Charles Beyerley for their hustle. Coach Pierce noted the increasingly improvement of senior Fullback Billy Aldridge, and Richard McDowell was noted for his defensive work.

On the Junior Varsity team, Coach Ballard mentioned Paul Guerin and Harry Ray McMahon as standouts.

Saturday night at 7:30 in Hammond Stadium, there will be a Red-White intersquad game of the Bobcats. Coach Gordon Beasley will head one team with Coach Ballard on the other. The teams will be split up evenly and some real hitting should occur. The admission will be announced later.

Fry Loses Star Back at SMU

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Jerry Rhome, quarterback at Southern Methodist University last fall when he led the Southwest Conference in passing as a sophomore, withdrew from the university Wednesday.

He told coach Hayden Fry, who became coach at SMU this year replacing Bill Meek, that he didn't want to play under Fry's type of offense because he had been accustomed to playing under a wide-open style.

He said Fry was installing a ball-control type offense and that he didn't feel that he could be of use.

Rhyme said he was going to some other college, had several in mind but didn't want to name them at this time. He will be ineligible to go to any other Southwest Conference school.

Rainmaker Has Now Retired

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas' rainmaker has retired.

Homer Berry of North Little Rock, who drew attention when he offered to "air condition" North Little Rock and Little Rock for a month for $500, accepted an agreement with Radio Station KLRA to provide an inch of rain for the area, then predicted at most to the hour the time it would rain.

The Weather Bureau at Little Rock recorded 1.52 inches and Berry got his $500. He also became the center of controversy in a state that could then, and can now, use a lot more moisture to help out crops by.

Berry subsequently offered to bring rain to the McCrory, Craighead County and Joiner areas, but has met with difficulty in getting his silver-iodide, cloud-seeding machine, to be effective.

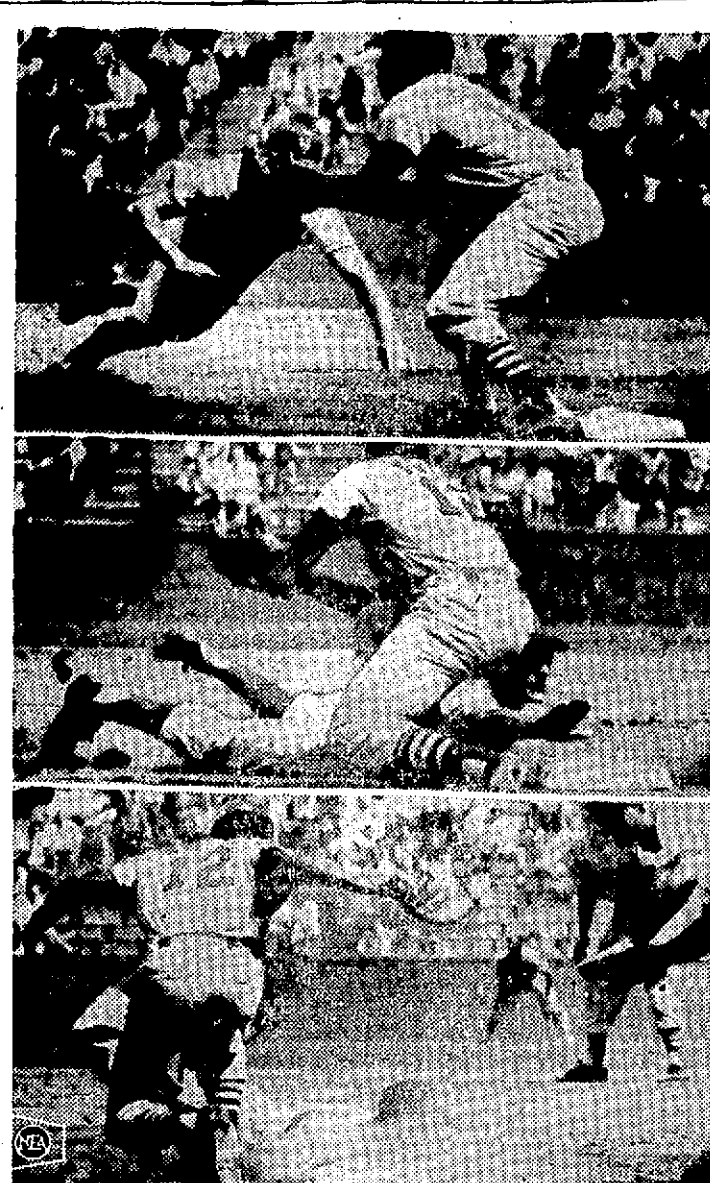

The deadline for the McCrory contract and a $600 fee passed Monday night and the one for a $1,200 fee for rain in Craighead County elapsed at midnight last night. Berry, or his cousin Charley whom he says will continue working the brick-lined barrel in which the silver iodide is superheated and sent in the air, has until Friday on the Joiner contract.

Wednesday, Berry said he found the work too strenuous. But he indicated that he wasn't quitting rainmaking completely.

"I retired 15 years ago with a serious heart condition," Berry said, "and I can't keep up as I have been the last few days."

Berry said he hopes one day to be made the hydrologist of some state, perhaps Arkansas. In this position, he said, he would be able to prevent crop damage by frosts, provide a longer growing season and bring white Christmases.

He said he also would like to see the state initiate an anti-tornado program.

Goldberg Has Cancelled State Talk

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Secretary of Labor Arthur Goldberg cancelled an appearance before an international labor group here Wednesday night to wind up negotiations on a threatened strike and ponder his new post as a Supreme Court justice.

Goldberg was to have spoken to the some 200 delegates to the International Association of Governmental Labor Officials.

The cancellation of his talk was announced late Wednesday afternoon but there were still hopes that the delegates would hear from Goldberg via a telephone hookup. That method failed and the secretary wired association President Clarence Thornbrough his regrets.

"As you know," he said, "I promised to attend, and I wanted to come. But circumstances have made that impossible. You are aware of my deep respect for your organization and my awareness of your contributions to labor's role in the free world."

Goldberg added, "The President has asked me to assume new duties, but I could not resist sending you this personal word of explanation."

No substitute speaker was announced.

The meeting was attended by labor commissioners from the 50 United States and Puerto Rico, the 10 Canadian provinces and by federal officials.

Folley Knocks Out Opponent

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Zora Folley, the world's third-ranked heavyweight, knocked out Al Gonzales of Odessa, Tex., in 1:55 of the fifth round Wednesday night.

Folley weighed 200, Gonzales 191. A crowd of about 2,000 watched the bout.

Folley, of Chandler, Ariz., started slowly, but quickened the pace in the second round and had Gonzales back-pedaling through much of the bout.

He sent Gonzales to the canvas for a mandatory eight-count in the third round.

Folley ended the bout with two quick lefts and a right cross.

Rookies Survive

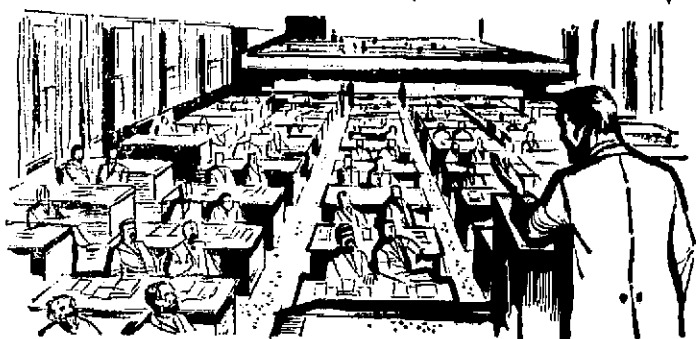

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Eighty-one rookies survived the second cut in the American Football League this week, 19 of them because they were in the Chicago All-Star game and were exempt from being trimmed in the first two slices.

However, next Tuesday the clubs must cut from 38 to 33—the 1962 player limit—and even the All-Stars will be eyed by the club owners then.

Such college standouts as Lance Alworth of Arkansas, Bert Coan and John Itadi of Kansas, with San Diego, James Saxton of Texas with Dallas and Billy Neighbors of Alabama, with Boston, were still on the lists and contending for starting jobs.

It happened 100 YEARS ago

The oldest incorporated trade association in the country, the United States Brewers Association, was organized in 1862... the same year that

IN ARKANSAS, Governor Henry M. Rector called an extraordinary session of the Arkansas legislature to deal with the threat of invasion, following the Battle of Pea Ridge. Arkansas of 1862 discussed the great issues of the day over a friendly glass of beer, just as modern Arkansans do.

For even then, beer was Arkansas' traditional beverage of moderation. Beer still provides enjoyment for Arkansans, and a good living for many of them—not only the employees of the Brewing Industry itself, but also for Arkansans' farmers and other suppliers of materials brewers use.

TODAY, in its centennial year, the United States Brewers Association still works constantly to assure maintenance of high standards of quality and propriety wherever beer and ale are served.

NFO Trying to Boost Farm Prices

BY RON SPEER
DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—Plushed with victory over the repudiation by two large firms of a controversial farm report, the National Farmers Organization started today in an attempt to boost farm prices by holding products off the market.

Oren Lee Staley, 39, of Rea, Mo., NFO president said he is confident such an action would force processors of farm products to agree to long term contracts calling for higher prices.

NFO members from 15 states were to vote today on proposals to hold cattle, hogs, sheep and grain off the market. The organization went into its meeting after having gained statements from Ford Motor Co. and Sears, Roebuck and Co. disclaiming any connection with a farm plan proposed by the Committee on Economic Development (CED).

Theodore O. Yntema, Ford vice president, and Theodore V. House, a Sears director, were members of the CED research committee that drafted the plan calling for removal of some two million farmers from the farms and reduction of farm price supports over the next five years.

The NFO had demonstrated against the two firms, demanding that they issue statements clarifying whether the report represented the official policy of the companies.

Ford repudiated the report Sunday. Staley said he received a telegram Monday from Sears officials, saying that the company "is not connected in any way with the report on agriculture by the CED."

Staley said he expects quick approval of the holding action by more than 15,000 NFO members expected at the meeting.

"We also plan to discuss the possibility of including milk among the products we will keep off the market," Staley said. "Our plans call for the holding action to start shortly soon."

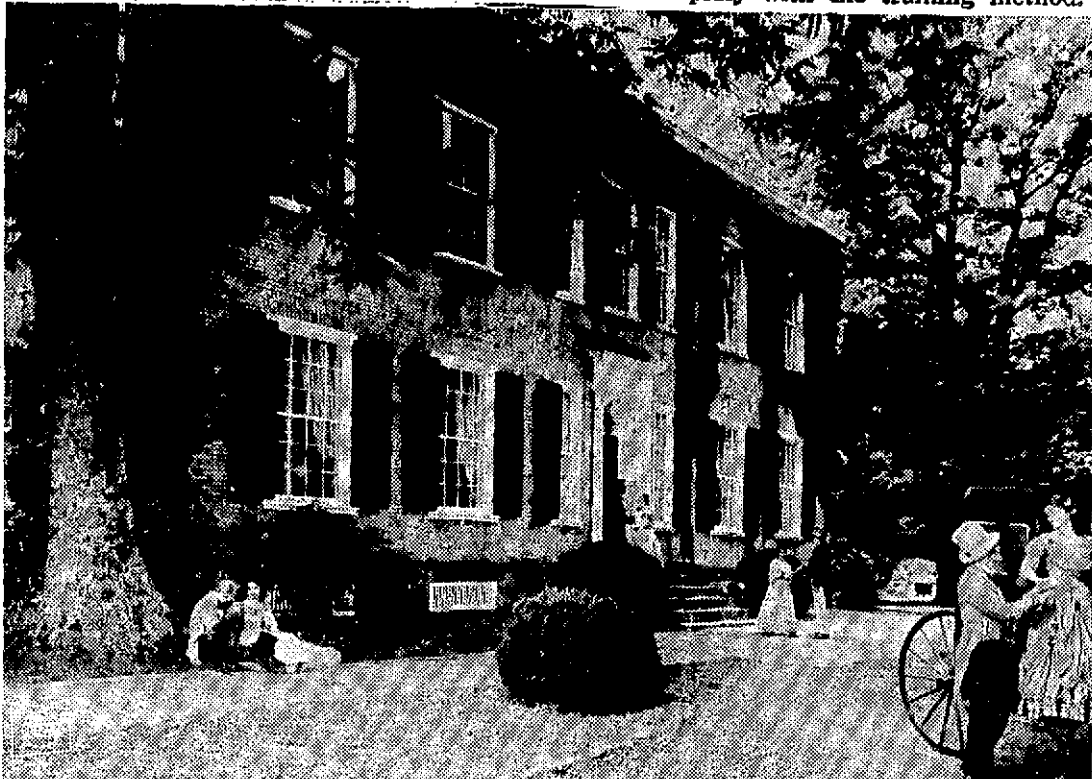

The proposed action would be a seven-year-old NFO's most ambitious attempt to raise farm prices. Three previous holding actions on hogs by NFO members failed to create noticeable effects in hog prices.

"I believe we are strong enough now to have a reasonable chance," he said, also, "We are demanding that processors sign contracts to purchase farm products through the NFO that will stabilize prices and marketing conditions."

The NFO so far has failed to get any processors to sign contracts making the farm organization a bargaining agent, Staley said.

Candidates Hit Opponent in GOP Meet

By JOHN R. STARR
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Republican candidates hammered on the theme of constitutional government in introducing themselves today to delegates to the 1962 GOP state convention.

Each of the party's four candidates for major offices — Willis Ricketts of Fayetteville for governor, Dr. Kenneth Jones of Little Rock for the U.S. Senate, Cy Carney Jr. of Fayetteville for Congress in the 3rd District and Warren Liebong of Pine Bluff for Congress in the 4th District — criticized their Democratic opponents for liberal attitudes.

Jones, in perhaps the most forceful speech, said he was in the race down by winds last week. The bulk of the crop is heading and some early rice is maturing and service said. The main harvest will begin between Sept. 10 and 15.

The dry, hot weather hurt soybeans but rains came in time for plants to set pods and make a crop.

Adverse weather reduced yields of late corn, sorghum and late hay crops, hurt pastures and greatly curtailed the amount of feed supplied stock.

In most areas, cattle are reported in fair to good condition although some animals are losing weight because of poor grazing.

Florida Pair Arrested for Theft

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—A Florida man and his ex-wife who are charged with grand larceny in the theft of $26,600 in Panama City, Fla., were arrested in Jonesboro motel Tuesday night, Deputy Sheriff O. C. Johnson said.

Doyle Turner, 40, and Bernice Turner, 35, both of Panama City, were taken to Blytheville and held in the Mississippi County Jail for Florida officers since the warrant for their arrest had been sent to Blytheville.

Sheriff Charley Abbott of Panama City said the two were accused of stealing the money from a woman chiropractor, Dr. Doris Coker Turner.

Abbott listed this series of events:

Last July 9, Doyle and Bernice Coker were divorced.

July 12, Doyle Turner and Doris Turner, widow of the late Dr. Philip Coker of Panama City, were married.

The new Mrs. Turner said she gave her husband $26,000 to buy a night club in Panama City. Aug. 14, Doyle Turner wrote a check for $26,600 to another man, who bought a car and put it in Bernice Turner's name.

On Aug. 19, Turner wrote himself a personal check for $23,000 of the remaining money and left. Doris Coker Turner told Sheriff Abbott that a valuable jewel brooch also was missing. It was not found in Jonesboro, officers said.

Sophisticated Comedy Hot in Film Land

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Hollywood knows a trend when it sees one; no doubt "Birth of a Nation" produced a rash of Civil War films. Now the industry is hot on the trail of the sophisticated comedy, in which there is no greater practitioner than the durable Cary Grant.

This is history repeating itself, for a quarter century ago Grant was in the vanguard of the first wave of sophisticated comedy. The result was such classics as "The Awful Truth," "Bringing Up Baby," "My Favorite Wife," etc.

Comedy got lost in a miasma of realism and psychiatry after the war. But the vogue for the sick pic appears waning, praise be. Hollywood needs no better signpost for the future than the fantastic record of "That Touch of Mink" at the Radio City Music Hall. It collared $1,886,427 in 10 weeks of play in that one theater.

Universal has become a satirical factory for the sophisticated comedy, having minted such smashes as "Pillow Talk," "Operation Petticoat," "Come September" and "Lover Come Back." Coming up: "40 Pounds of Trouble" (Tony Curtis); "If a Man Answers" (Sandra Dee, Bobby Darin); and "Three on a Match."

Also coming up is "The Thrill of It All," with Grant's co-leader in the sophisticated (sex) comedy, Doris Day, plus James Garner. Another wave-rider, Rock Hudson, will be back with "It Seems There Were These Two Irishmen." Even Marlon Brando will join the trend with "King of the Mountain."

MGM has made Tennessee Williams' only comedy, "Period of Adjustment" with Jane Fonda and Tony Franciosa. The studio also has two hopeful laugh-getters shooting in Europe: "Follow the Boys" (Paula Prentiss, Russ Tamblyn) and "Friendliest Girls in the World" (Hugh O'Brian, Dolores Hart).

"Mr. Hobbs Takes a Vacation" was Fox's biggest grosser of the year so far. The company is following up with another James Stewart comedy, "Take Her, She's Mine."

Paramount is going along with the trend, having made "Who's Got the Action?" with Lana Turner and Dean Martin and "My Six Loves" with Debbie Reynolds. Currently shooting is "Paris When It Sizzles" with William Holden and Audrey Hepburn. Upcoming: "Come Blow Your Horn" for Frank Sinatra.

Warner Brothers made "Critic's Choice" with Lucille Ball and that veteran sophisticate, Bob Hope. Now in production is "Not On Your Life" with Robert Preston and Tony Randall, an expert at such films. The studio plans to film the Broadway smash "Marry Mary" with the original cast.

United Artists will join the sweepstakes with "Irma la Douce" (Jack Lemmon, Shirley MacLaine), "Grand Duke and Mr. Pimm" (Glenn Ford, Hope Lange), "Pink Panther" (David Niven), "Five Pieces of Maria" (Danny Kaye, Melina Mercouri) and "Shot in the Dark" (Sophia Loren).

Oddly, Columbia, which practically invented the sophisticated comedy starting with "It Happened One Night" has only one in the immediate future: "The Man From the Diner's Club" with Danny Kaye.

But Columbia is also planning "Under the Yum-Yum Tree," "Playboy," "Three on a Couch," "Fair Game," "Roar Like a Dove" and others.

What do these comedies of the 1960s have that those of the 1930s lacked? Sex. Times have changed, and so has the production code.

38 U. S. Dead in Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Viet Nam war, in which U.S. military men are serving as front-line advisers and aircraft operators—and being shot at—has resulted in a casualty list of 38 American dead.

The tally is shown in the most recent Defense Department report, through Aug. 20.

Eight have been killed in action, 28 died of wounds, and two died while prisoners of the Viet Cong Communists.

All but one, an Air Force man, were Army.

In addition, 23 American military men have died from accidents, natural causes and so forth. Of these 11 were Army, 11 Air Force, and one Navy.

Tax Credit Okayed; Fight Over Expense

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate turned today to a fight over expense account deductions after handing President Kennedy a major victory in its first vote on the tax revision bill.

The Senate voted 52 to 30 Tuesday to retain the measure's major provision—a $1-billion investment credit to spur American industry to buy modern machinery and equipment.

The credit action raised Senate leaders' hopes they could push the 392-page bill to final passage by Friday.

The Senate continued in session Tuesday night to debate the next issue, expense accounts, and an attempt to fix a time for a vote on the provision failed.

The investment credit was retained with 37 Democrats and 15 Republicans voting for it, and 17 Democrats and 13 Republicans against it—an unusual lineup, as both conservatives and liberals were widely split.

The provision now is virtually certain to become law since it passed the House and has been retained by the Senate.

Under it, most companies can deduct from their taxes up to 7 per cent of what they spend on new equipment. Public utilities would be allowed 3 per cent.

The administration has urged the credit as a key weapon in its drive to help American business become more efficient and competitive in world markets, and thus bolster the economy.

Foes of the credit assailed it as a windfall to many companies which they said would make the investment anyway. They insisted there was no evidence it would bring any additional modernization.

The expense account fight turned on an attempt by Sens. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., and Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., to keep out of the bill an amendment proposed by the Finance Committee that would permit deductions for goodwill entertaining.

The length of the debate on the bill seems likely to be determined by the fate of a highly controversial proposal to permit self-employed persons to set up tax deductible pension funds.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., has offered this as an amendment. The administration has opposed the proposal.

Mr. Hoover Is Reportedly Well

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover, 88, was reported in satisfactory condition today after undergoing a three-hour operation Tuesday for removal of an intestinal growth.

Dr. Rudolph N. Schullinger, who performed the operation, was quoted by a spokesman at Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center as saying Hoover was "perfectly lucid."

"All his vital signs remain stable—pulse 72, which is good, and temperature 99.6, which is also good," the spokesman said.

The doctor was quoted as saying the period immediately after such an operation is deemed critical and that Hoover would be watched carefully.

Doctors said it would take two to three weeks for a laboratory report on whether the growth was benign or malignant. This period is required because of the necessity of being "extremely careful in making the microscopic study," a spokesman said.

Life flickered like a candle in the breeze.

A GLIMPSE
By A. J. BENCHLEY

Mr. Randolph, in his old age, loved to walk around the streets of Chicago. He lived with his son, Charlie, and daughter-in-law, Lydia, and they got along quite well.

One morning in October, Mr. Randolph was walking along the edge of the downtown district when, in front of a second hand store, he paused to light his pipe. A loose neon sign swung with a satirical screech over his head and then suddenly fell, crushing him to the sidewalk.

He was rushed to the hospital and emergency surgery performed. When Charlie and Lydia arrived at the hospital, Mr. Randolph hovered on the thin line between life and death, life flickering like a candle in a breeze.

When Charlie and Lydia quietly entered the small white room and looked at the bed that seemed too large for the little old man's body, they could hear him softly speaking though his eyes were closed.

"Hello, Mama, Papa, George. And Mary!"

Charlie, his son, looked, bewildered, at his wife. "He thinks he's with Grandma and Grandpa and Uncle George."

"Mary was your mother's name, wasn't it?"

Charlie nodded. "Yes, he's talking to my mother. Poor Pop, he's delirious."

Charlie moved closer to the bed, fear battling in his chest like a hard winter apple.

How weak the old man looked! How frail! There was no doubt that the old man was dying. His chest rose and fell, working to sustain that tender connection between life and death.

Mr. Randolph spoke again, this time with surprise in his voice. "Why, Polly, when did you get here?"

Charlie looked, wide-eyed, at his wife. "He's talking to my Aunt Polly."

Then Mr. Randolph drifted off into sleep. Charlie sat at his bed, waiting. An hour later, the tired old eyes opened and a smile spread over the lined face.

"Hello, Charlie. I had me a little accident, didn't I?" His son nodded, a worried look on his face. "Don't fret about it, Charlie. I'm gonna be fine." Mr. Randolph turned to Lydia, smiled, then looked back at his son, saying, "You know, Charlie, I had a glimpse of Polly on 'the other side.' Yes, she was right there with all the others who've gone on before. Sure surprised me."

"You were delirious, Pop," Charlie said, patting the old hand. "The worst is over now. You just go to sleep. We'll be back to see you later tonight, okay?"

As they walked to their car, Charlie shook his head, puzzled. "I hope that knock didn't jar Pop's good sense. Imagine him seeing Aunt Polly on 'the other side' like that?"

"Sometimes when people are that close to death, they do see what it's like over there," Lydia said.

"Maybe," Charlie said, "but Aunt Polly is still alive. No, it was just a funny reaction while he was coming out of the coma."

When Charlie poked the front door key into the lock, Lydia pulled something from the small box.

"Here's our mail, honey," she said, entering the house.

Charlie shut the door and took the envelopes from his wife. "This is a wire," he said, sliding the flap of one then pulling out the message. "From Pittsburgh." He read it in silence, astounded, then

Arkansan Honored

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Staff Sgt. Henry E. Wagoner Jr., 23, Booneville, Ark. became Tuesday the first person wounded in Viet Nam to get a Purple Heart. Wagoner was shot in the finger in early June and was clubbed in the head during an encounter with a rebel force who were attempting to steal a rifle. The award was made at the Brooke General Hospital here. Wagoner says he hopes to be transferred to Ft. Chaffee, Ark., where his wife is a secretary.

stared at his wife. "What's the matter, Charlie? Your face is so white."

"Aunt Polly . . . died . . . three hours ago."

In the stunned silence wrapping around them like a cloak, the younger Randolphs knew—though they'd probably never be able to explain it—the old man had actually stood on that thin line of death.

GOPs Plan to Name New Chairman

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A new chairman of the Arkansas Republican party will be elected at the 1962 convention, which opens today at Robinson Auditorium.

Roy Mitchell of Hot Springs is acting chairman of the party. He was named to the post after Ben Hickey of Harrison resigned earlier this year.

The convention agenda includes revision of several party rules, including an altered method of naming executive committee members. The present formula is based on six congressional districts. There will be only four districts after this year.

Winthrop Rockefeller, national committeeman, has suggested that alternates be encouraged to attend state and county committee meetings. Rockefeller, nominal party chief in the state, also suggested the alternates, under special circumstances, be permitted to vote.

The committee will hold an organizational meeting this afternoon.

The party is expected to spark the November general election with a campaign to elect 4 members to major offices. They are Willis Ricketts of Fayetteville, running for governor; Dr. Kenneth Jones of Little Rock for the U.S. Senate; Cy Carney of Fayetteville for 3rd District congressional and Warren Liebong of Pine Bluff for 4th District congressional.

Skyline Drive Funds

WASHINGTON (AP)—Approval of funds for start of a proposed skyline drive through Ouachita National Forest in Arkansas and Oklahoma was recommended Tuesday by a Senate public works roads subcommittee. The proposed 55 mile scenic drive would be routed through the national forest along the crests of the highest of the Ouachita Mountains in western Arkansas and eastern Oklahoma. Cost of the route was not given.

Raps Welfare Illegitimacy Programs

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus told delegates to the Southern Water Resources Conference here Tuesday they are being duped if they support welfare programs that encourage illegitimacy.

Faubus told the some 90 members from 14 states attending the conference that welfare programs need reorganization at the local level and at Washington.

"How much evil are we doing when we give these people a government check for doing wrong," he asked.

Faubus' attack was a renewal of charges he made in a talk Monday to some 200 delegates to a national convention of labor commissioners in Little Rock.

"I never dreamed I would see the day when a pension would be given to anyone who never worked a day in his life," the governor said. He said the abuse of welfare programs could destroy the programs themselves.

Faubus added that the people of the nation have come to expect too much in the way of handouts from their government.

Faubus drew laughs when he referred to an alleged investigation into the cause of illegitimacy.

Government officials, he said, are scared of the problem and don't know what to do about it.

The governor also outlined to the delegates the accomplishments of his administration. He cited wage increases, a rise in per capita income and industrial development.

Purpose of the conference, which ended Tuesday, was to map out future needs in water resources and develop plans for meeting them.

Delegates attended from Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia.

Capt. Bartholomew Gosnold named Cape Cod for the cod fish in 1602.

PAT FROM POP—Matthew Crowley, 2, comes over to get a pat on the head from his father, Daniel A. Crowley, who, with other members of New York's finest, had just received a medal for heroism he had performed in the line of duty.

Man Cut in Half Has Survived

NEW YORK (AP)—A man cut in half to get rid of the paralyzed, cancer-stricken lower part of his body, has survived for one year and is on the road to what may become a useful life.

Surgeons at the University of Minnesota Hospitals, where the operation was performed to remove the legs and pelvis, believe it is the first of its kind in which a patient has survived for any length of time.

The backbone was severed at the level of the navel, but no vital organs or intestine were removed, doctors said.

The normal outlets for waste materials had to be relocated, and the patient continues to have a catheter or tube in his bladder. Six surgeons, three nurses and one anesthesiologist took part in the operation.

The amazing case was presented in a report to the American Congress of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation meeting here. University of Minnesota staff members who prepared the paper were Dr. J. Bradley Aust, associate professor of surgery, who headed the operating team; Dr. Frederic J. Kottke, head of the department of physical medicine and rehabilitation; and two other members of the department, Dr.

Walter J. Dawson and Dr. Jessie K. M. Easton.

Identity of the 30-year-old patient is being withheld by physicians.

This is his history, as detailed at a Minneapolis press conference by Drs. Aust, Kottke and Easton in advance of today's session:

He was paralyzed from the waist down from birth with a spina bifida—a two-pronged spine which is open over the spinal cord.

As an infant in a poor family, he got poor care. An ulcer on his buttocks was agitated by his confinement and lack of control over elimination of waste matters.

It became a huge sore and cancer began its deadly work, as the young man lay listlessly on his bed day and night.

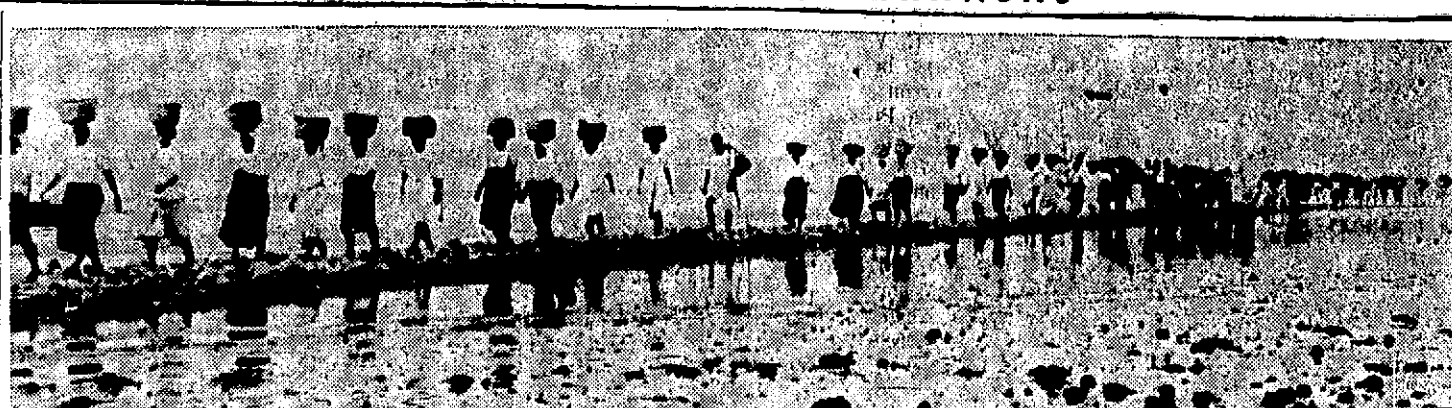

Other doctors had thrown up their hands in defeat. Death seemed certain within one year.

Finally, at the age of 29, the man was taken to University Hospitals and given his choice of limited days with useless limbs and pelvis or a possible restoration.

The man chose the operation. Last October the team headed by Dr. Aust severed him at the navel in an operation that required four and a half hours.

He and Dr. Kottke pointed out the man still has his troubles. He has a kidney problem, although waste matter is carried out through cystostomy and colostomy operations.

"And we don't know yet whether we have cured his cancer," added Dr. Aust, who said it may

Factions in Algiers Hold Gun Battle

By ANDREW BOROWIEC

ALGIERS (AP) — Vice Premier Ahmed Ben Bella's followers clashed with hostile guerrillas in the Algiers Casbah today in an hour-long gun battle.

Muslims, running in panic shouted that "People are falling like olives!" Heavy gunfire mingled with the explosion of grenades. A dozen ambulances screamed to the ancient city, which slopes with its white-walled homes and smelly alleys toward the waterfront.

The battle came as four Algerian's six guerrilla commands

Camden Expressway

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Highway Department received a check for $100,000 from Camden Monday as its share of right-of-way costs for a proposed expressway through the community. Camden voters approved the money in a bond issue last April 24. Camden City Manager George A. Lewis presented the check to Highway Director F. R. Oliver.

Some Kick in That Shotgun

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—Garland Hovard, 4, of El Dorado, got an old model .12 gauge shotgun out of the closet at his home today, loaded it by himself, and blasted a divan and wall in the living room of his house.

Garland, alone in the house at the time, suffered bruises and a minor laceration on the chest when the gun kicked back at him.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hovard of El Dorado, were at work. They said the gun was a family keepsake, that it was never loaded, and they couldn't explain where the boy got a .12 gauge shell.

An older sister, staying with the boy, had stepped out of the house just before the child went to the closet and obtained the gun, police said.

and the regular army's general staff were lined up in support of Deputy Premier Ahmed Ben Bella's bid for control of the new nation.

Guerrilla commands of the Algiers area and the Kabylie Mountains to the east are in rebellion against Ben Bella's Political Bureau.

Muslim witnesses said the shooting began when troops of the guerrilla Wilaya (Zone) 4 controlling Algiers attempted to arrest a group of Ben Bella's followers.

Spreading gunfire rained down on the guerrillas from rooftops and windows along the dark alleys.

Ben Youssef Ben Kmedda, premier of the now defunct Algerian government in exile, submitted a plan of compromise for a national "political Bureau that would include the leaders of all six guerrilla wilayas as well as its present five members.

Race Issue Visitors Fill Albany Jails

By DON MCKEE

ALBANY, Ga. (AP)—Segregated jail cells in three south Georgia cities were filled today with 75 clergymen and church members from 10 states after an attempted prayer vigil protesting racial bars in Albany.

Jews, Catholics and Protestants, men and women, Negro and white persons, young and old, went to jail after refusing Tuesday to move from the sidewalk in front of City Hall.

"We have come to offer prayers to God," said a clergyman. "Go back and preach to your own congregations and convert your own cities," said Police Chief Laurie Pritchett who ordered the arrests after three times warning the group to disperse.

Separated by race and sex, groups were sent to jails in nearby Leesburg and Newton and others were lodged at the county and city centers.

Roland Shelton, lay leader of the Little Rock conference, said about 200 laymen are expected to attend the assembly.

jails in Albany.

Bonds were set at $200 "charges of disorderly conduct, creating a disturbance, congregating on the sidewalk and refusing to obey an officer."

Albany, torn by nine months of intermittent racial strife, wasn't noticeably ruffled by the latest incident, although some of the several hundred white spectators cheered and applauded the arrests.

Among the demonstrators arrested were nine rabbis, eight Catholic lay members from Chicago, and 45 Protestant clergymen representing Baptists, Methodists, Presbyterians, Lutherans, Episcopal, Unitarian, Disciples of Christ and United Church of Christ faiths.

They came from New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Illinois, Texas, Indiana, New Hampshire, Georgia and Washington, D.C.

What World of Science Is Doing

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A drug to combat colds, a question about high protein diets, and a study of mental stress and tooth decay figure in the medical news: An anti-virus drug, nicknamed ABOB, often can prevent or suppress respiratory infections of the common cold type, a Swedish physician reports.

In tests in an industrial plant, ABOB was credited with reducing absenteeism from colds by 50 per cent, when workers took the drug at the first sign of symptoms. In another experiment when it was taken as a preventive, the incidence of colds was reduced by 30 to 40 per cent, says Dr. John Haglund of Koping, Sweden.

High Protein Diets
A medical research team takes issue with the idea that a high protein diet allows the body to store up reserves of protein, useful later on if diseases strike or you have to go hungry. Such diets are being recommended for that reason.

There is no scientific evidence, from rat experiments, that the body can bank proteins, report Drs. L. Emmett Holt Jr., and Elias Halac Jr., and Charlotte N. Ajidi, A.B., of New York and Baltimore.

Stress and Teeth
Mental stress and strain somehow may make teeth more susceptible to decay, at least in some uls, says an Australian dentist. Dr. Philip R. N. Sutton of Melbourne checked records of hundreds of people and found that an outbreak of tooth decay frequently followed times of great mental stress. But he says the findings thus far are only suggestive, not conclusive.

First woman ever elected to the U. S. Senate was Mrs. Hattie W. Raway, of Jonesboro, Ark., in 1912.

Girls who love the outdoor life in cold winter weather sometimes find that their teeth react to cold, causing pain. This girl uses a new toothpaste developed, the makers say, to relieve this sensitivity.

U of A Chorus Will Sing for President

WASHINGTON (AP)—The University of Arkansas' mixed chorus which last week won an international contest in Italy will sing for President Kennedy and members of Congress next week.

Directed by Richard Brothers, the 40 member chorus won first place in the annual International Polyphonic Competition at Arezzo, Italy, last Friday to become the first group from the United States ever to win this contest.

The group will return to the United States later this week. Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., said today he has arranged for the chorus to sing in the White House rose garden next Tuesday noon and that President Kennedy will be on hand for the performance.

At 5 p.m. that same day, Fulbright said, the chorus will appear in the Senate office building auditorium and he is inviting members of Congress and their staffs to attend.

The chorus, whose trip was financed by Arkansas citizens, toured Europe before and after the contest.

Fulbright said the chorus is due in New York Friday and will remain there until Monday in order to appear on the NBC "Today" program. The group will leave Washington by bus Wednesday for Fayetteville, Ark.

New Program May Impress or Depress

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The curtain will soon rise on a new television season. New programs will impress (or depress) the viewers. New stars will twinkle on the home screens.

As part of the television manufacturing process, there is the advance build-up for a legion of unknowns, those new and usually handsome faces tapped for television stardom months and months before the public has a chance to look and react.

The star-making process includes mimeographed documents somewhat misleadingly called "biographies."

These are turned out on a wholesale basis by anonymous specialists skilled in producing such titillating introductions as "Mike Greene, who stands 6 feet, 5 inches and weighs 205 pounds, says, 'I can't act small,' or 'With 100 hard-earned dollars and a feeling he was bound to succeed, a scrawny 19-year-old arrived in New York a few years ago only to discover the big city really did not care.'"

Both are quoted from the official biographies of Greene, soon to be introduced as a new lead in old "Cheyenne" and Andrew Prince, second lead in the new "Wide Country."

A proper television biography can be identified more by omission than information. For instance, if a male star was born earlier than 1930, his birthdate consists merely of a day and a month—never, never a year.

No matter how recently a woman star was born, her birth year is never mentioned.

The official biography also is more likely to stress the unusual than the routine. For instance, a co-star in "Naked City" is introduced as follows: "Harry Bellaver was a teamster at 10, chewed tobacco at 10, was a coal miner at 16 and an actor at 23."

A youngster born of honest, hard-working parents in, say, Brooklyn is likely to emerge in the biography as a sort of Dead End Kid who rose the hard way over a dreadful environment. A starlet with a year of high-school French often comes out "reading and speaking fluently seven languages including modern Greek."

There is an unwritten law that each of these documents must conclude with a listing of the subject's hobbies, and here the writers really let themselves go.

Sometimes it seems to this ardent biography-reader, that if the biography-writers were allowed to write the television shows, we wouldn't be complaining about a lack of creativity and imagination.

Ordinance Invalid
PIGGOTT, Ark. (AP)—A city ordinance banning pinball machines was held invalid Monday by Chancellor Gene Bradley. The ruling held the city could not legally ban the machines because the state permitted them and provide a tax for such devices. The ordinance was adopted by the City Council May 7.

Facts About Cuba Hard to Secure

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Facts about what goes on in Cuba are hard to come by these days.

An important factor is that the press in Cuba is fully controlled by the Fidel Castro regime. Every newsman working for a Cuban paper knows what he must and must not write. The result is a sterile press that usually throws little light on what goes on.

Even so, statements in Havana newspapers often provide indications of basic situations existing in such problems as housing and the food supply, and U.S. reporters can follow up these leads to some extent.

The number of such reporters is strictly limited. The Associated Press, for example, has only one non-Cuban reporter working in Cuba. Applications for visas to send in other reporters are turned down or ignored.

Only a token number of visiting correspondents are allowed each month—usually one or two. Most of these represent newspapers or radio and television networks.

The correspondents able to work in Cuba find most official doors closed to them. When they do have news to report, they often cannot get it out of Havana. Long distance calls are frequently cut off with the explanation, "I'm sorry, sir, the New York party hung up."

Cables often disappear if they displease a supervisor checking all incoming and outgoing messages at the telegraph office. Wording is sometimes changed in cables that clear Havana.

An exception to these circumstances arises when the government wants to exploit some kind of news.

Despite the Cuban censorship, many of the trends of the Castro regime have been fully reported to the outside world.
